1. The prison in Gotse Delchev (Nevrokop) was an old Turkish prison situated opposite the square in the town. It housed about 100 to 150 prisoners and was run by a certain Solomonov. No political prisoners were kept there.
2. There were two prisons in Sliven, the Sliven Local Prison and the Sliven Central Prison. The director of the Sliven Central Prison was a certain Mundeov, a very cruel man.
3. The prison in Ruse is an old one and is situated in the town. The quarry at Pirgovo is under its administration and is located about 20 kilometers southwest of Ruse at the bank of the Danube River. The quarry, which has 250 political prisoners from all prisons, is guarded by 18 militiamen and one chief militiaman. The chief supervisor is a certain Serafim.
